

HALL AND OATES @ OLDIES NIGHT

Friday, December 7, 2012

7:30 p.m. – 10:30 p.m.

Albee Room at City Library

8 S.W. 8th Avenue

Daryl Hall and John Oates met in 1967 but didn't start working together until 1972. They released three albums at Atlantic without scoring any hit singles. "She's Gone" only reached #60 on the Hot 100 chart in 1974. After signing with RCA Records they scored a Top 10 hit with "Sara Smile" in 1976. Things only got better from there, as they made the Top 10 with 15 more songs through 1988. In all they charted 34 singles on the Hot 100 over a 17-year period.

The Philadelphia-based duo have had a lasting impact on popular music. In 1985 British artist Paul Young hit #2 in America and #4 in the UK with a remake of "Everytime You Go Away," a Hall & Oates LP track from five years earlier. In 2010 two much newer groups released entire albums of Hall & Oates songs in tribute to them: Koot Hoomi and The Bird and the Bee.

On Friday, December 7, Oldies Night @ The Library will dig into the Hall and Oates music library, including their six US number one hits: "Rich Girl," "Kiss on My List," "Private Eyes," "I Can't Go For That (No Can Do)," "Maneater," and "Out of Touch". We'll listen to that Paul Young smash, some of the Bird and the Bee and Koot Hoomi remakes, and even some songs Hall & Oates remade – they loved Motown and other '60s soul music hits.

Free admission. Free parking. Free-flowing memories.
